

Army Logistics University Library Newsletter

Fall 2010 Volume 7 - Issue 3

The Army Logistics University (ALU) Library is pleased to present the release of its fall 2010 newsletter. This quarterly publication is intended to keep our valued library community informed about current developments, recent acquisitions, and other exciting news that may provide assistance in your information and research needs. It also serves as a reminder that we are able to support our customers with a wide range of reference services including access to many valuable databases and resources in a variety of media formats.

The ALU Library is centrally located on the 2nd and 3rd floors of the new academic building and consists of two main components. The first component is a state-of-the-art research and information center that will include the consolidated resources of the former Army Logistics Management College, Transportation Center, and the Ordnance Center libraries.

The second component is the Fort Lee Community Library. This library, located on the 2nd floor, is available to ALU students, staff, and the Fort Lee community and offers a current collection of fiction, nonfiction, children's books, audio-visual material, and periodicals. Fort Lee Community Library patrons have access to six internet computers and a copy machine.

The ALU and Fort Lee Community Library hours are Monday-Friday, 0800-1900; Saturday, 1000-1700; and Sunday, 1200-1700.

So don't forget to make this Library your one-stop source for information including DOD studies, reports, lessons-learned, and any other government documents, independent publications, or hard-to-find items. Contact us also about additional information or training on any of the many resources and databases that are available.

Come in to see us, email us, or simply give us a call (804 765-8170). You can also visit us online at the ALU library.

ALU Language and Cultural Learning Center

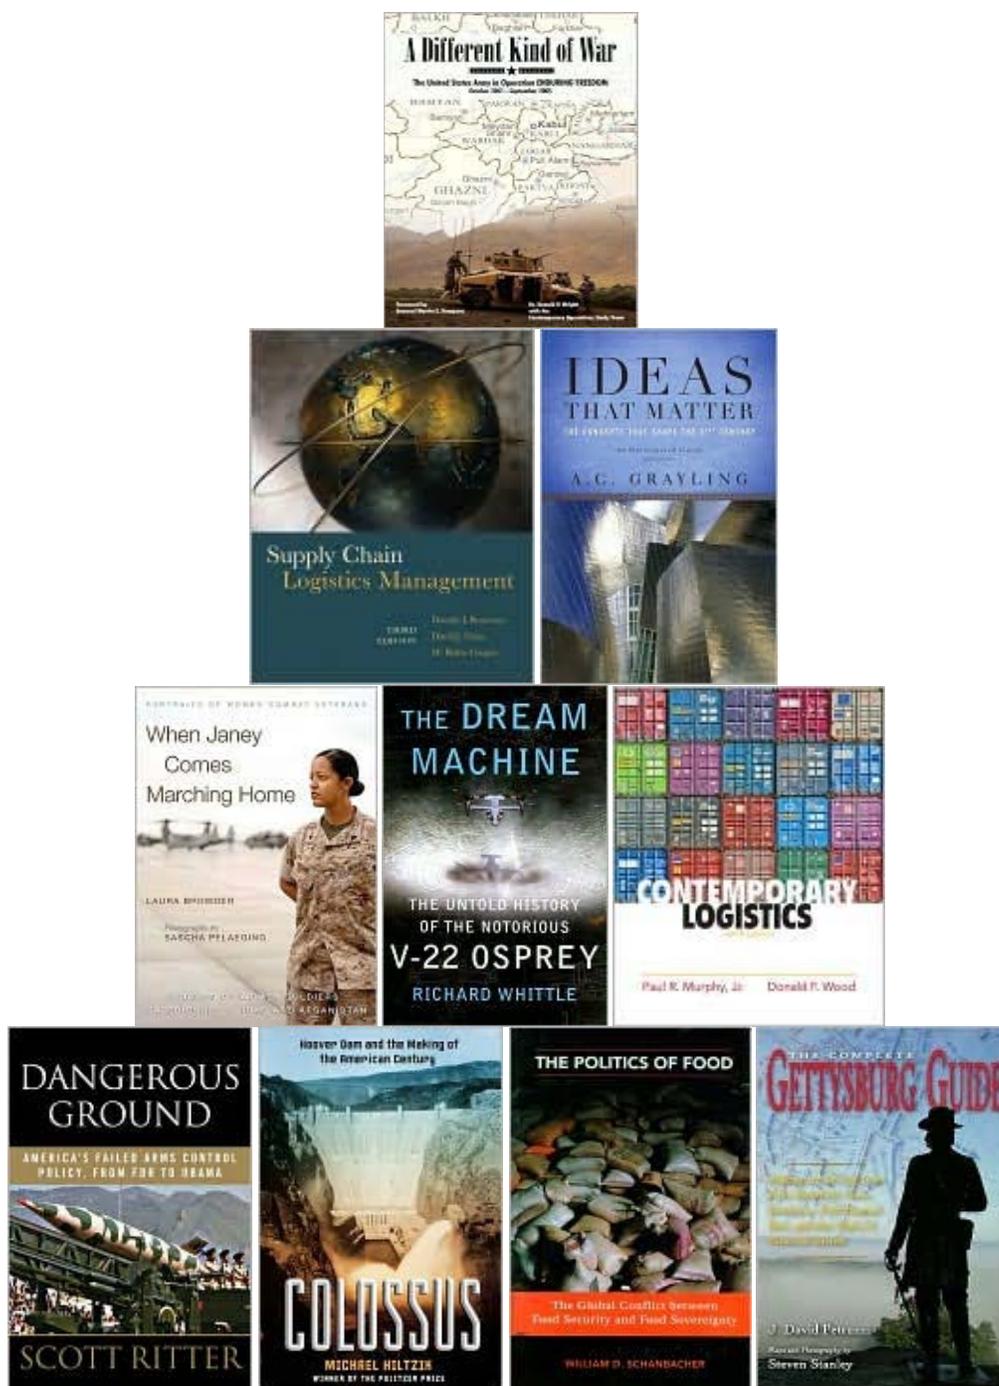

The ALU language and cultural computer lab is now open on the 3rd floor of the library in room 3016. Please check in at the 3rd floor info desk for assistance and to reserve a computer and headsets are available. A new language and cultural web page is now available and contains links to several learning resources including Rosetta Stone via the Army E-Learning Program.

The ALU Language and Cultural Learning Center also serves as an online training center for DOD civilians, DOD military, and DOD contractors. If you have DOD online training requirements this area provides a quiet setting to accomplish those goals and the capability of printing final certificates.

Current Issue of Army Sustainment

AMY PERRY/FORT LEE TRAVELLER

"Cover: Lieutenant General (Ret.) William G. "Gus" Pagonis poses amid the personal archives he donated to the Army Logistics University (ALU) Library on 17 May 2010. General Pagonis was the lead logistician during the Persian Gulf War of 1990 to 1991. His carefully preserved record of his role in that conflict will allow ALU students and researchers to study and benefit from his lessons learned in one of the most complicated logistics operations in Army history. The article beginning on page 32 discusses his donation, which will be the foundation of ALU's new Senior Sustainer's Collection. (Photo by Julianne E. Cochran, Army Sustainment)"
