Spring 2010 Volume 7 - Issue 1

The Army Logistics University (ALU) Library is pleased to present the release of its spring 2010 newsletter. This quarterly publication is intended to keep our valued library community informed about current developments, recent acquisitions, and other exciting news that may provide assistance in your information and research needs. It also serves as a reminder that we are able to support our customers with a wide range of reference services including access to many valuable databases and resources in a variety of media formats.

The ALU Library is centrally located on the 2nd and 3rd floors of the new academic building and consists of two main components. A state-of-the-art research and information center that will include the consolidated resources of the Army Logistics Management College, Transportation Center, and the Ordnance Center libraries scheduled for completion in FY2011.

The second component is the Fort Lee Community Library. This library is available to ALU students, staff, and the Fort Lee community and offers a current collection of fiction, nonfiction, children's books, audio-visual material, and periodicals. Fort Lee Community Library patrons have access to six internet computers and a copy machine.

The ALU and Fort Lee community regular Library hours are Monday-Friday, 0800-1900; Saturday, 1000-1700; and Sunday, 1200-1700.

The library will be closed on Easter Sunday, 4 April 2010.

So don't forget to make this Library your one-stop source for information including DOD studies, reports, lessons-learned, and any other government documents, independent publications, or hard-to-find items. Contact us also about additional information or training on any of the many resources and databases that are available.

Come in to see us, email us, or simply give us a call (804 765-8170). You can also visit us also online at the ALU library.
