

ARMY LOGISTICIAN

NOVEMBER - DECEMBER 1969

ABOUT THE COVER

The design involves closely related and harmonious elements representing both the military and industry. It conveys a sense of the complexity of our national defense structure. For a further treatment of this subject, read the commentary by Lieutenant General Charles W. Eifler beginning on page 4.

PURPOSE: The mission of ARMY LOGISTICIAN magazine is to provide timely and authoritative information on U.S. Army logistics plans, policies, doctrine, procedures, operations, and developments to the Active Army, Army National Guard, and U.S. Army Reserve. ARMY LOGISTICIAN magazine is published to improve communications among logistics personnel operating at all levels, to promote their professional development, and to increase their understanding of the role and importance of U.S. Army logistics.

ARMY LOGISTICIAN magazine is an official Department of the Army periodical published bimonthly at the U.S. Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Virginia, under the sponsorship of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics and the Commanding General, U.S. Army Materiel Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise specified. Material may be reprinted provided credit is given to ARMY LOGISTICIAN magazine and to the author. Opinions expressed by contributors do not necessarily reflect the official viewpoint of the Department of the Army.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any function of U.S. Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, ARMY LOGISTICIAN Magazine, U.S. Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing this publication was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, August 15, 1968.

Active Army units receive distribution under the pinpoint distribution system, as outlined in AR 310-1. Completed DA Form 12-4 must be sent directly to CO, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220.

Army National Guard and U.S. Army Reserve units must submit requirements through their state adjutants general and U.S. Army Reserve channels respectively.

Subscriptions to ARMY LOGISTICIAN magazine are available through the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402. Annual rates are $3 for mailing to a domestic or APO address and $3.75 for mailing to a foreign address. Individual copies of the magazine are 50 cents each. Checks should be made payable to the Superintendent of Documents.
