ABOUT THE COVER

DARCOM Corporate Goals
(inside back cover)

Army Logician's mission is to provide timely, authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics to the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. Its purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to assist in achieving the Army's information goals.

Army Logician is an official Army periodical published bimonthly and sponsored by the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations and Logistics), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commander, Army Materiel Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. Material may be reprinted if credit is given to Army Logician and the author. Opinions expressed by contributors do not necessarily reflect the official views of the Department of the Army.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logician, Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing Army Logician was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, on 31 October 1975.

Active Army units receive distribution under the pinpoint system outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to CO, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220. Army National Guard and Army Reserve units must submit requirements through state adjutants general or Army Reserve channels.

Subscriptions are available through the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Annual rates are $7.65 for mailing to a domestic or APO address and $9.60 for mailing to a foreign address. Single copies are $1.35. Checks should be payable to the Superintendent of Documents.

DARCOM Corporate Goals

- Improve the process of developing and acquiring materiel and of providing for materiel readiness of Army combat forces.
- Increase user satisfaction with materiel and the readiness support of that materiel.
- Improve the integration of individual weapons systems into total battle-field systems to attain the full potential of technological advancement.
- Increase efficiency in the utilization of DARCOM's resources—manpower, facilities, dollars.
- Increase the number and grade of minority personnel and women in the DARCOM workforce.
- Improve the quality of DARCOM's civilian and military workforce.
- Maximize delegation of authority and commensurate responsibility within all elements of DARCOM.
- Insure that individual responsibility and accountability are fixed in the assignment of missions, functions, and tasks.
- Improve DARCOM's image within the Army and throughout the Defense Establishment.
- Inculcate in the DARCOM workforce the philosophy of DARCOM being a command of action rather than reaction.
