ABOUT THE COVER

Since Army materiel production depends on the Nation's industrial base, one facet of which is depicted on the cover, Army logisticians must understand the implications of our reliance on imported nonfuel minerals. The story beginning on page 6 warns the industrialized "cities" of the threat posed by the mineral-rich, developing "rural" areas of the world. (Photo courtesy of Bethlehem Steel Corporation.)

Army Logistician (USPS 112-430) is devoted to the publication of timely, authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics for the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and the public. Our purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to encourage and stimulate innovative thought in areas of logistics by providing a forum for those ideas. The views expressed in the articles are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Department of Defense or the Department of the Army.

Army Logistician is an official Army periodical published bimonthly and sponsored by the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations, Logistics, and Financial Management), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, and the Commander, Army Materiel Development and Readiness Command. Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. Material may be reprinted if credit is given to Army Logistician and the author, except where copyright is indicated.

Use of the third person pronoun "he" and any of its forms, as used in this periodical, is intended to include both masculine and feminine genders. Any exceptions will be indicated in the text.

Articles, photographs, illustrations, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, Army Logistician, Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Va. 23801.

Use of funds for printing of this publication was approved by Headquarters, Department of the Army, on 1 October 1980 in accordance with AR 310-1.

Active Army units receive distribution under the pinpoint system outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to Cdr, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21220. Army National Guard and Army Reserve units must submit requirements through State adjutants general or Army Reserve channels.

Annual subscription rates are: $12.00, mailed to a domestic or APO address and $15.00 to a foreign address. Single copy rates are $2.25 domestic and $2.85 foreign. Order through and make checks payable to Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Coming in the January-February issue —

Ammunition Procurement Strategy — proposes a change in procurement to provide more “bang for the buck” on tomorrow’s battlefield.

Armored Combat Logistics Vehicles — discusses the importance of armored logistics vehicles, needed to support Division '86 combat units.

The Role of Logistics in Confederate Defeat — examines the major logistics problems responsible for the South’s defeat in the Civil War.
