COVER—Equipment and vehicles destined for use in Team Spirit '85 are offloaded at MTMC Terminal Pusan, Korea. Logistics in Korea is the subject of two articles in this issue, "Team Spirit '85 Teamwork," page 8, and "Modernizing the Trans-Korea Pipeline," page 22.

Army Logistician publishes timely, authoritative information on Army and Defense logistics for the Active Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve, civilian employees of the Army, and public. Our purpose is to increase knowledge and understanding of logistics and to encourage and stimulate innovative thought by providing a forum for those ideas. The views expressed are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Department of Defense or the Department of the Army. □ Photographs are U.S. Army unless otherwise noted. □ Material may be reprinted if credit is given to the magazine and the author, except where copyright is indicated. □ Use of "he" and any of its forms includes both masculine and feminine genders. □ Articles, photographs, and items of interest on any facet of Army logistics are invited. Direct communication is authorized to: Editor, ALOG Magazine, ALMC, Fort Lee, VA 23801-6044. □ Use of funds for printing this publication has been approved by the Secretary of the Army on 19 February 1985, IAW provisions of AR 310-1. □ Active Army units receive copies through the initial distribution system as outlined in AR 310-2. DA Form 12-5 must be sent to Commander, AG Publications Center, 2800 Eastern Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21220-2896. ARNG and USAR units must submit requirements through state adjutants general or USAR channels. Private subscriptions and rates are available from Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402.
