COVER—Providing our ground combat forces with class V—ammunition—is a continuing logistics concern. Three articles in this issue deal with various aspects of that support: Visions of Munitions Support, on page 13; Retrograding Containerized Munitions, on page 16; and Containerization for the Future, on page 20. The cover photo depicts one task in preparing ammunition for retrograding.

Mission: Army Logistician (ISSN 0004-2528) is an official Department of the Army professional bulletin prepared bimonthly at the Army Logistics Management College, Fort Lee, Virginia, and published by Headquarters, U.S. Army Combined Arms Support Command, for the Department of the Army. Its mission is to publish information on Army and Defense logistics plans, programs, policies, operations, procedures, and doctrine that contributes to the professional development of military and civilian logistics personnel.

Disclaimer: Articles express views of the authors, not the Department of Defense or any of its agencies, and do not change or supersede information presented in other official Army publications. The masculine pronoun may refer to both genders.
